THE UNITED GUILDS' SERVICE & LUNCHEON AT FARMERS' & FLETCHERS' HALL Friday, 19 March 2010

Since the troubled times of World War II the Livery Companies of the City have joined together at St Paul's Cathedral for the annual United Guilds' Service. Today the event is one of the most colourful in the City.

Admission tickets to this very popular occasion are limited and Liverymen only are invited to apply. There are nine reserved seats in the Company Pew and further seats in the North Transept for liverymen and for spouses and partners. The service begins at 11.15 a.m. and you are asked to be in your seat by 10.45 am (please note that this is 15 minutes earlier than in previous years). Admission to the Cathedral will be by ticket only. (Livery medals should be worn.

After the Service members of the Company who have attended, and their partners, are invited to an informal luncheon at the Farmers' & Fletchers' Hall, 3 Cloth Street, London EC1 as guests of the Farmers' Company. An excellent three course meal with wine will be served and costs £48 per head.

The Service and the luncheon provide a good opportunity to meet members of other Companies and to support the Livery movement and the City of London. Places at both are limited and so if you wish to attend the Service and/or the Lunch, please complete the form below and return it to me by as soon as possible and in any event by Thursday, 11 March at the latest.
