- Nine questions have been devised which will be provided beforehand to those who apply to attend so as to be ready for debate and discussion via the Zoom platform at the Seminar.
- For copies of the questions, please apply to philipfidler@btinternet.com with copy to clerk@arbitratorscompany.org

There is no charge for this event.

MATTHEW BASTONE DipArb FRICS FCIArb, Past Master of our Worshipful Company (2016-2017), is a Chartered Quantity Surveyor with extensive experience in commercial management and dispute resolution. Having worked at the highest level in the construction industry, both in the UK and overseas, he moved to set up in private practice. He was awarded the Robert Jardine Brown prize upon completion of the CEM Post Graduate Diploma in Arbitration in 1998, and now has long experience and many appointments as a practising Arbitrator and Adjudicator, serving on various panels including those of RICS, CIArb, RIBA and CEDR. He is also an accredited expert witness who, for over 20 years, has provided forensic surveying services and prepared expert reports in connection with a wide variety of construction disputes.

PHILIP FIDLER FRICS, FCIArb, C.Arb. who is a Quantity Surveyor, Arbitrator and Adjudicator, has been involved in construction activities since 1966, as an Arbitrator since 1988, and Adjudicator since 1999 having had roughly 300 appointments. He is a keen proponent of the Worshipful Company of Arbitrators' Pupillage Scheme, and an occasional lecturer and author of articles on construction and ADR matters. A quantum expert assisting the Court on about 30 occasions between 1985 and 2016, he has been a contributor since 2009 to the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators' and Adjudication Society's various Guidelines on Adjudication. He is an Arbitrator Member of the Society of Construction Arbitrators and a Court Assistant of the Worshipful Company of Arbitrators.

MATT MOLLOY Matthew is an experienced dispute resolver, appointed in over 700 construction and engineering disputes as either adjudicator, arbitrator, mediator, expert determiner, Conflict or Dispute Avoidance Panel/Board member. These disputes have concerned a number of high profile projects both within the UK and overseas, and have involved complex technical and legal issues in a variety of sectors, including education, private and public housing, offices, hotels and leisure, sports stadia, roads and infrastructure, utilities, energy and process engineering. A Fellow of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators, he is a Practising Member of the Academy of Experts, a CEDR trained Mediator and has been called to the Bar. He is on the RICS, RIBA, TeCSA, CI Arb, CEDR and AICA panels of Adjudicators.

This event is to be held as a Zoom Meeting, to be interactive, and to allow for full audience input and discussion.
