The Master's Lecture

Thursday 23 July 2020

“Arbitration and the Courts: an enduring relationship”

to be given by

Sir Julian Flaux

Zoom Meeting: 23rd July 2020, 6.00pm – 7.00pm

Chair: The Master, Margaret Bickford-Smith QC

Our Speaker

The Rt Hon Sir Julian Flaux is a Lord Justice of Appeal, appointed in December 2016. Since November 2019 he has been Lead Judge for International Relations, and as of February 2020 is the Supervising Lord Justice of the Commercial Court.

Called to the Bar in 1978, he practised at the Commercial Bar from 1979 to 2007 specialising in disputes involving insurance and reinsurance, shipping, international trade and professional negligence, and was appointed QC in 1994. He was appointed a High Court Judge in May 2007. He was successively from 2010 until 2016 Presiding Judge of the Midland Circuit, Judge in Charge of the Commercial Court, and President of the Special Immigration Appeals Commission.

We are delighted to present this event, which had to be postponed from March 17th, 2020.

This seminar is primarily for arbitrators and arbitration practitioners, and those with an interest in public and private dispute resolution and litigation including specialists in law firms and at the Bar, academics and students (whether or not members of the Worshipful Company). It is intended to be held as a Meeting, to be interactive.

Admission to this event is free of charge, but you will need to register in advance.
